Obstruction of Law: On October 10, 2020, Matthew Meyer alerted Pequannock police officers that he was notified that he was arrested on October 6, 2020 for DWI in Pequannock. Mr. Meyer stated that he had not been arrested recently. Investigation revealed that Kyle Meyer, 30 years old from Morristown, NJ had been arrested for DWI and unlawful possession of a weapon and had given a false name to the investigating officers. Kyle Meyer was arrested at his home in Morristown and charged with obstructing administration of law and all of the charges that had originally been generated under the false name. Kyle Meyer was transported to the Morris County jail pending an appearance at the Superior Court.
